April 9, 1925.

Mr. D. C. Collier, Director General,
Sesqui-Centennial International Exposition,
Benjamin Franklin Hotel,
Philadelphia, Pa.

Dear Sir;

I was pleased to note, some time ago, your appointment as Director General of the above named exposition, in fact John J. Collier, 1520 Spruce St., your City, send me a copy containing the announcement.

You know the Collier families are all workers, even when Robert Collier was a merchant at London England in 1570.

I have had quite a little bit of correspondence with a relative of yours, Mr. Robert Collier of Denver Colorado, I presume you are personally acquainted with him.

If you ever come to Georgia come to see us. With usual kind regards from all of us, I am

Very respectfully,

JCC:C